The Honorable Thomas C. Blaisdell, Jr.
Assistant Secretary of Commerce
Department of Commerce
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Mr. Blaisdell:

STAT

I have your letter dated 13 December 1949 requesting that CIA participation in the export control Advisory Committees be extended to include a representative on the R Procedure Subcommittee.

STAT

The review of export license applications and export programs in the light of national security objectives is a very heavy responsibility in an area closely related to the particular interest of the CIA. Because of our special concern for matters relating to the national security, we are vitally interested in the success of the current export control program. Accordingly, I am requesting [redacted] to be responsible for CIA representation on the R Procedure Subcommittee. In order to make our participation in this and the other export control committees fully effective, it may be necessary for [redacted] to be represented, from time to time, by alternates.

Sincerely,

STAT

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF COMMERCE
WASHINGTON 25

DEC 13 1949

Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter, USN
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I should like to request your Agency to extend its participation in the Interdepartmental Advisory Committee on Requirements and its Operating Committee to include a CIA representative on the R Procedure Subcommittee.

As you know, this Subcommittee is responsible for the interagency review of export license applications and export programs in the light of national security objectives.

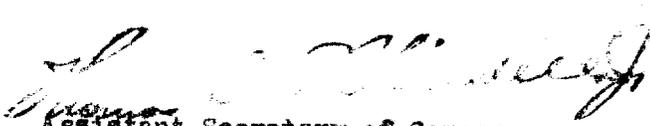

I have been impressed with the excellent character of CIA representation on the Advisory and Operating Committees. Your representative has been of great value in enabling these committees to reach sound judgments on export control problems having a bearing on national security.

CIA representation would contribute materially to the operations of the Subcommittee in effecting a more thorough and rapid review of important export applications. It would bring to the Subcommittee benefits arising from the extensive foreign commercial intelligence of CIA, resulting in sound judgments consistent with national security objectives.

The desirability of CIA representation on the R Procedure Subcommittee has been recognized by other government agencies participating in the Subcommittee. Brigadier General E. C. Langmead, Director for Military Programs, Munitions Board, has strongly recommended CIA participation, and has informed me that preliminary discussions on this subject have been had with

Your approval of this request, and designation of a CIA representative to the Subcommittee, will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Assistant Secretary of Commerce
